It is my firm conviction that every great man is immensely indebted to his mother for his development as his native power be what it may. On that ground, my dear friend, you should be distinguished far above your fellows-

Your sincere friend

Benjamin Peirce

Rev. R. P. Ames.

2K (332)

DSI